By order of March 25, 2015, we directed the Department of Human Services and invited the children's lawyer-guardian ad litem to answer the application for leave to appeal the December 18, 2014 judgment of the Court of Appeals. On order of the Court, the answers having been received, the application for leave to appeal is again considered, and it is DENIED, because we are not persuaded that the questions presented should be reviewed by this Court.
